| 17 | “The world is advancing by leaps and bounds. The same reason inspires me to take this job as it can make me develop as a professional in a wholesome manner. The technical skill sets that I will get to work upon, with this job, can later become a significant part of my career. I don’t want to remain stagnant, as my current work profile is not taking me anywhere. I am a fast learner and a quick creative thinker, hence I can pick up new technologies on a daily basis or in very short time spans, as well as apply the same. This is pivotal to the stage where I am standing right now, and it also makes me a great candidate for you to consider for this profile. The world opens new doors for people who can do different tasks with efficiency, and I am that kind of a person. This job is a perfect fit for me and I am a perfect fit for it! I already have a lot of skills, all outlined in my resume, and this job role can help me sharpen each one of them to a great extent.” https://www.naukri.com/blog/how-to-answer-why-do-you-want-this-job/ |
| 18 | “It is said that if you are rewarded for a task that you have done brilliantly, you can master yourself in it. This organization is known to have rewarded its employees by acknowledging their work. I am really looking forward to work in such an atmosphere. If someone sees the work you have done and appreciates your efforts, the joy of doing it becomes double, as you automatically get filled with enthusiasm while doing the task. When I look at the bigger picture, the regular commendation I get in my current job is decent but not enough to motivate me to achieve greater results or bigger numbers. I want to feel more involved and attached to my workplace, and I have a gut feeling that this organization is the right place for me to feel motivated and deliver to my fullest potential. I want to work in a place where my efforts would not go unnoticed, ever! Hence, I feel that your organization is a perfect match for me.” https://www.naukri.com/blog/how-to-answer-why-do-you-want-this-job/ |
| 19 | “When I applied for this job, one thing was certain. The job profile is perfectly tailored to suit my abilities. It seems the job description was written keeping me in mind! All the skills I have acquired all through these years fit perfectly into the role. I had been looking forward to exactly this for such a long time! I actually needed a chance to prove myself, and at present, I feel your organization is the best-fit workplace for me, as I don’t see anything better than this. Here, I can put each one of my skills to the best use. In my current and previous jobs, many of my abilities were going unused, and this had an overall negative effect on my personality. When you do not sharpen your artillery, you are likely to lose the battle. I think I was losing in the competition which the corporate world offers. I have seen people who have done brilliantly when they have used their abilities 100%. I felt I was lagging behind in that race. So, in order to win the race, I need an opportunity like this one to actually stand out and prove my worth. This job can help me regain the momentum to go and fulfill my objectives. That would be my answer to your question ‘Why do you want this job?’.” https://www.naukri.com/blog/how-to-answer-why-do-you-want-this-job/ |

With an opportunity, such as this one, being offered by your organization, is more than one can ask for. Working with a team of experts in the field can make me grow in this field and grow as a professional. It can help me acquire much-needed abilities to grow in my career. It can also cement the development that is much needed for freshers like myself. I also need to point out that the goals I have marked for a longterm career growth can be easily attained if I consistently work hard towards my final goal, which is to become a senior manager in an organization, which is as famous as yours. This job is a significant push which I need to fly high right now. I cannot ask for anything less than this as I feel I am the best talent for this position.” https://www.naukri.com/blog/how-to-answer-why-do-you-want-this-job/ |
